The Trustees of The Hispanic Society of America take pleasure in presenting a collection of tapestries and carpets from the Royal Manufactory of Madrid, loaned through the courtesy of His Majesty the King of Spain and sent to this country in charge of the Marquis of Valverde. The larger number of these tapestries, from designs by Francisco Goya and others, had not been removed from the walls of the Royal Palace of the Pardo since their completion from the original cartoons in the 18th century.

One of the workrooms in the Royal Manufacture of Tapestries.—Madrid.

PLATE I

Tapestry in the Flemish style. It represents several peasants drinking and smoking. In the middle, a woman is washing by a well. In the foreground a heap of manure with hens upon it. On the right a girl is trying to raise a drunken man, and some other figures. Landscape background.

Woven after a cartoon by Andrés Calleja and bearing the number 3.

This cartoon is included in the list of pictures donated by the Royal household to Cardinal Lorenzana, to be taken to Toledo.

Size: 2,40 × 4,59.
